Updates in Hospital Medicine

Thursday - Friday
October 16-17, 2025
Live Webinar

Sponsored by UW School of Medicine
Department of Medicine, Division of General Internal Medicine
Office of Continuing Medical Education

TARGET AUDIENCE

This program is designed for providers who take care of hospitalized general medicine patients. This includes a sub-specialty that works in the inpatient setting.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of the course is to update the skills of inpatient providers with a focus on common problems in clinical care. The format consists of brief, directed, live presentations followed by discussions where participants will be able to ask the presenters questions. This format guarantees question and answer interaction time between faculty and attendees.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Provide evidence-based inpatient management for persons with heart failure.
- Identify and manage stroke and other neurologic emergencies in the hospital.
- Manage acute bleeding in persons on oral anticoagulation.
- Recognize and manage acute substance withdrawal in the hospital.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Course activities are exclusively reserved for registered course attendees.

ONLINE PRESENTATION AND MATERIALS

Instruction materials will be available online at uwcme.org (for conference registrations only). Materials will be available starting on October 10, 2025, for registrants to print and/or download. A digital booklet with the conference agenda and pages for note-taking will be uploaded with course materials. Content will be recorded and available to attendees for educational purposes. Attendees will be notified when recordings are available, approximately 4-6 weeks after course completion. CME credit is available only for attending the live webinar; no credit is available for watching the recorded lectures.

ACCREDITATION

Accreditation with Commendation: The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this Live activity for a maximum of 14.50 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Maintenance of Certification (MOC) Credits

Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the evaluation component and commitment to change, enables the participant to earn up to 14.50 medical knowledge MOC points in the American Board of Internal Medicine's (ABIM) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit participant completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABIM MOC credit.
