Description:

An Introduction to the H.E.A.R.T. of Listening: Shifting from Hearing to Listening as a Leader

The UW SoM Women in Medicine and Science (WIMS) Committee hosts 6 annual workshops on Women Faculty Leadership as well as Reproductive Healthcare & Family Support. These workshops aim to create a community for women faculty throughout the SoM, build leadership skills, and provide a space for women faculty explore topics that impact their careers in academic medicine. Additionally, the WIMS committee hosts an annual Women Faculty Day. This is an all-day event, the theme changes each year but every Women Faculty Day features a keynote speaker, networking opportunities, and talks specific to women faculty in academic medicine.
