

October 4, 2024 at 7:30 AM – 8:30 AM

Location: UWMC- Montlake

Description: Cardiovascular medicine subspecialists generally seek to concentrate their ongoing education to updates within their own subspecialty. Patients with cardiac disease may "overlap" among cardiac subspecialties, making it useful for all cardiologists, cardiothoracic surgeons and cardiac anesthesiologists to participate in broad-based cardiovascular medicine update- such as those recent advances, thereby helping to bridge the gaps in knowledge between the various cardiovascular subspecialties.

Objective(s):

Location: UWMC- Montlake

Specialties: Cardiology

Faculty Disclosures:

Cooper Kersey, MD (Nothing to disclose - 07/01/2024)
