

May 21, 2025 at 6:30 AM – 7:30 AM

Location: UWMC- Montlake

Description: The Grand Rounds lecture series presents a wide range of surgery-related topics for faculty, fellows, residents, and medical students. Topics can include discussions about: new research findings, health care delivery, updates on the diagnosis and treatment of surgical problems, evaluation of surgical outcomes, innovations in medical education, implications of new science discoveries and innovation, and a variety of other topics relevant to the surgical field.

Accreditation Statement:

Accreditation with Commendation: The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation:

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this Live Activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Other Healthcare Professionals

Other healthcare professionals who participate in this CE activity may submit their statement of participation to their appropriate accrediting organizations or state boards for consideration of credit. The participant is responsible for determining whether this activity meets the requirements for acceptable continuing education.

Faculty

Anne Ehlers, MD