

October 8, 2026 at 7:30 AM – 9:00 AM

Location: Hybrid

Description:

This conference enhances medical knowledge of attendees in the practice of state-of-the-art nuclear medicine. The focus is on the practice of diagnostic and therapeutic nuclear medicine. Each week our presenters provide a PowerPoint presentation using clinical cases from recent weeks of Nuclear Medicine service from UWMC or one of our affiliated sites. Each presentation provides a review of clinical cases and supportive published literature, including or followed by interactive discussions between participants and presenters.
