

February 15, 2024 at 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

Description:

Session 4: The Jazz of Educational Design: Maximizing the Power of the Arts in Medical Education

Curious about what arts and humanities can bring to your teaching in health professional educational settings?

In this session, we will use jazz music in a faculty development exercise aimed at developing one's "voice" as a teacher. Next, we will explore the underlying design of the experience and discuss principles for maximizing the power of the arts and humanities for teaching medical subjects.

Accreditation Statement:

Accreditation with Commendation: The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation:

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this Live Activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Other Healthcare Professionals

Other healthcare professionals who participate in this CE activity may submit their statement of participation to their appropriate accrediting organizations or state boards for consideration of credit. The participant is responsible for determining whether this activity meets the requirements for acceptable continuing education.

Faculty

Paul Haidet, MD, MPH